

HIV Policy-Focused Highlights to Expect at AIDS 2024 [VIDEO]

Take a look at some of the policy research highlights you can expect at the world's largest conference on HIV and AIDS.

June 9, 2024 By International AIDS Society

AIDS 2024, the 25th International AIDS Conference, is just seven weeks away! Take a look at some of the policy research highlights you can expect at the world's largest conference on HIV and AIDS.

Register today and join thousands of people living with, affected by and working on HIV in Munich, Germany, and virtually, from 22 to 26 July.

Some HIV policy research highlights to expect at AIDS 2024

AIDS 2024 will feature research on a wide range of important issues related to public policy, funding, legal and ethical issues, and human rights. Highlights will include:

- An assessment of how Uganda's Anti-Homosexuality Act 2023 has affected access to HIV and other healthcare services
- New insights on how Russia's war on Ukraine has impacted access to HIV services
- An important progress update on the global movement to end HIV criminalization
- A global analysis showing the association between PrEP uptake and the robustness of national PrEP policies
- A UNAIDS analysis of the current landscape and trends in domestic public spending on HIV in low- and middle-income countries
- New estimates of the potential long-term human and economic cost of missing global HIV targets

What to expect at AIDS 2024
